

FARM LOAN IN MERGER

By Ralph Cole
A public meeting will be held at the courthouse at Hondo May 10 at 8 p.m. to discuss proposed amendments, fishing and trapping regulations for Medina County, State Game and Fish Commission has announced. This session has again been placed un-regularly powers this year, August Timmerman, State Game and Fish Warden, said.

rain again fell in Medina county last week with as much as one and one-half inches reported in parts of the county. The settlement Community reported 1.5 inches in 15 minutes Saturday. One and one-half inches of rain was reported two miles north of Devine while only one-half inch fell at Biry. The settlement also reported one-fourth of an inch Friday afternoon.

The Hondo Independent School district has sold the old Northside school to Irving Gooding for $3,500. The school board also rejected all school bids with the exception of the one who was not qualified for selection.

Eugene F. Saathoff, whose ranch is located 20 miles north of Hondo on the Hondo-Banera road, received an award from the Lions Club Wednesday for outstanding conservation work done on his ranch.

Farmers and ranchers in this area received a supply of fish from Friday on the fish hatchery at Uvalde. About 80 farmers had their orders filled, according to the Medina Valley Soil Conservation District Office.

Roger Alexander Thompson, Francis, and Franklin D. O'Neil, Jr., LaCoste, are among 229 students in the University of Texas College of Engineering who are candidates for Bachelor of Science degrees. The degrees will be presented June 1.

Sen and Soil, magazine supplement to the Hondo Anvil Herald, appears in this week's issue of the paper. From Dimmit and Val Verde Counties comes a story on lions while a story on striped oysters near Pearls shows how they saved young watermelon plants. Be sure to read every feature in this month's magazine supplement, the conservation issue.

The Salvation Army will be in Hondo May 16. Anyone who has any discarded newspapers, magazines, shoes, clothing or other items, should call the Hondo Chamber of Commerce Office and leave their name and address. The Salvation Army will call at your home to pick the articles up for distribution to the needy.

Luke P. Wade, social security representative from San Antonio, will be in Hondo at the courthouse Tuesday, May 14, at 9 a.m. Anyone with a social security problem is invited to visit.

Little League Trying For Lights On New Field

Boys Need $1,000 For Lights & Equipment

Officials of the Hondo Little League and Baby Ruth League are seeking to raise $1,000 for lights and equipment on the new baseball field near the airbase. Lights on the new field will allow the Little Leaguers to play night games instead of having to play their schedules in the daytime as has been done in the past.

The diamond is being built near the airbase, on land donated by Universal-Rundle Corp. Fencing, posts and other materials were moved from the old diamond by Max Orta and a crew of men free of charge. They have been installed at the new field and grass has been planted. Work should be completed soon.

Anyone wanting to make a donation may give their checks or cash to Dr. John H. Jennings or Wayne Sigler, president of the Little Leagues.

Most fields cost a minimum of $4,000 to light but labor will be donated and materials can be purchased at about cost, Sigler said.

The local Little Leagues are set up to furnish summer recreation for boys between the ages of nine and fifteen. The Little League requires a boy to

Baptist Mother Of Year

Devine Lady Wins

DALLAS (Spl) — Mrs. Elizabeth Roberson, 84-year-old Devine widow, has been named District 6 Mother of the Year for Texas Baptists, leaders announced here Saturday.

She is a member of the Black Creek Baptist Church, has taught Sunday school for several years, is treasurer of the church and also president of the Women's Missionary Union.

Mrs. Roberson's husband was J. W. Roberson, Medina County commissioner and farmer. The couple's sons and daughters are Mrs. J. A. Blackburn of San Antonio; H. G. Roberson of Dile; J. A. Roberson of Devine, and J. W. Roberson, Jr. of San Antonio.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberson donated the land for the Black Creek community graveyard and Mrs. Roberson is a liberal contributor and tither in her church. Her father donated the land where the Black Creek Church is now located.

All four of the sons and daughters are active church workers and two of the sons are teachers and deacons in their respective churches.

Sponsors of the mother of the year project are the Baptist Standard and the Baptist General Convention of Texas, District 6 of the BGCT includes 264 churches and missions in a 27-county area bounded on the west by Val Verde County, on the east by Fayette County, on the south by McMullen County, and on the north by Kimble County. The Rev. Dallas P. Lee of San Antonio is the district missions secretary.

Alamo-Hondo Group New Association

The Board of Directors of the National Farm Loan Association of Hondo and the Alamo National Farm Loan Association, have unanimously approved the consolidation of their associations. It has been announced by Wayne L. Sigler, secretary-treasurer of the local association. A meeting of the stockholders will be called in the near future for the purpose of ratifying the board's action. Alamo stockholders have already voted their approval.

An office will be maintained in Hondo and one in Bexar County, Sigler said, but the key office will be in Bexar County. Hondo's office will be a branch office. Clerical and basic accounting records will be maintained at San Antonio.

The new Association will be known as the Alamo-Hondo NF-LA with three directors from Medina County and three from Bexar County. Medina County's directors for the new organization are James Amberson, who will serve as president of the new association, A. J. Hardt and Ben DeJoire. Bexar County's directors are John P. Clasen, now president of the Alamo association but who will be the vice-president of the new association, Newton A. Evans and John Dudek Jr.

Sigler will remain in Hondo as Loan Manager for the new association.

The outstanding combined capital stock of the new association will be in excess of $148,000. The combined legal reserves and surplus amounts to more than $215,000, Sigler said. Net worth of the combined association will be $352,600.

Hondo has at the present time 280 loans and Bexar Co. has 260 loans.

"Members of the new association will be able to continue to receive the same services they have had in the past," Amberson stated. "The Board of Directors approved the consolidation plan in order to effect economy in operation. They were looking into the future, with a view of continuing long-term farm and ranch loans at the lowest possible interest rate for our farmers and ranchers and to preserve a dependable, permanent, long-term Federal Land Bank farm and ranch loan system with easy terms in our chartered territory."

"This step has been taken because of the increase in the cost of operations and the drastic increase in the cost of money," Amberson continued. "Money loaned to farmers and ranchers by the Federal Land Bank is obtained through the sale of bonds to the general public. For the last eight years, the cost of this money has continued to increase. In 1948, money was obtained at 1 1/2 per cent interest. The last issue of bonds sold by the Federal Land Banks (Feb. 15, 1957) required payment of 4 one-eighth per cent interest."

"Under the new arrangement the new board of directors for the consolidated association will provide for representation of each of the associations on the new board. This new arrangement will save the associations more than $10,000 per year, it has been estimated."

Members of the Hondo Board of Directors are Amberson, Hardt, De Joire, Charles W. Suehs and Eugene H. Bendele.

Notary Publics Must File

Secretary of State Zollie Steakley has announced that he will reappoint persons now holding notary public commission but that such persons must re-qualify by the filing of a new oath and bond with the County Clerk of his residence between June 1, and June 10, 1957. Henry Schulte, Medina County Clerk said this week.

Steakley emphasized that notaries public should not send requests for reappointment or for commissions directly to the Secretary of State. The law specifically requires the County Clerks to approve notary bonds. Any person not now a notary public who desires appointment should apply to Schulte between May 1 and May 20. Application during this period will assure prompt attention before the sure procedure of reappointing present notaries.

Steakley said that each person applying for a commission as a notary public must be at least 21 years of age and a resident of the county for which he is appointed. The exact name and permanent address of the applicant must be furnished Schulte.

Hondo Man Arrested On Hit, Run Accident

The Medina County Sheriff's Department has apprehended a Hondo man in connection with a hit and run accident in the city limits April 28.

Daniel Barrios, 30, told the Sheriff's Department he was turning from Highway 90 into the Ranchito Drive Inn on the night of April 28, a Sunday, when he saw a motorcycle coming pretty fast. He said he stepped on the brakes but they didn't work right because they were wet at the time.

Two persons were injured in the accident. Lewis F. Morgan and his wife, Joyce, were taken to Medina Hospital following the accident. Morgan was suffering from a broken left leg and a cut on his hip while his wife received a broken left foot. Both were suffering from shock, cuts and bruises.

Morgan, an airman third class at Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio, was driving his motorcycle east on Highway 90 when the Barrios car, a 1951 Buick, pulled directly into his path, witnesses said.

Barrios also told the Sheriff's Department that he stopped after hitting the motorcycle for a little while and saw two people in a ditch. He said he got scared and left, making a right turn towards the airfield. He then drove to 15th St. and his home, 2005 15th St., where he waited for someone from the Sheriff's Department to pick him up.

After spending Monday and Tuesday in Hondo, Barrios decided to go to San Antonio Wednesday, to find a job and have his car fixed. The car received a broken headlight and a dented fender.

Barrios, after signing a confession, posted bond and was released from jail.

He told the Sheriff's Department he knew he had done wrong but was scared at the time of the accident. A hit and run charge has been filed.

In South Texas Area

Water Level Down

Water levels in artesian wells tapping one of Texas' most extensive aquifers, the Carrizo sand, have declined more than 100 feet since 1948 throughout a large area in parts of three counties.

According to a Geological Survey report released to the open file today by Secretary of the Interior Fred A. Seaton, about 145,000 acre-feet of the water was withdrawn in 1955 from 933 wells tapping the Carrizo sand and sands of the Wilcox group. About 90 per cent of the water was used to irrigate about 100,000 acres in an 11-county area west and south of San Antonio, Tex.

Entitled "Development of ground water from the Carrizo sand and Wilcox group in Dimmit, Zavala, Maverick, Frio, Atascosa, Medina, Bexar, Live Oak, McMullen, La Salle, and Webb Counties, Tex.," the report by E. A. Moulder points out that if development in the eastern part of the area continues at its present rate for the next few years, the declining artesian head will cause deep pumping levels comparable to those in the western part of the area, where pumping lifts exceeding 300 feet are common.

Typewritten copies of the report are available for inspection at the offices of the Geological Survey, Room 1242-G General Services Administration Building, 18th and F Streets NW, Washington, D.C., and 302 West 15th Street, Austin, Tex., and at the office of the Nueces River district, Cotulla, Tex.

The report was prepared before recent rains. We have no new information concerning water levels since that time, but we understand some wells have risen. — Ed. Note.

Registrations Increase This Year

Medina County has retained $90,876.07 as its share of the 1957 motor vehicle registration fees paid through April 30, according to Alfred J. Rohrbach, tax assessor-collector.

This amount is an increase of $2,063.89 over the corresponding period for 1956. Total receipts for 1957 licenses amounted to $131,813.16 through April 30. For the same period in 1956, the total was $127,751.15.

The State of Texas has received $40,977.09 for 1957, as compared with $38,944.18 for 1956. This is an increase of $2,032.91.

At the close of business on April 30, a total of 7,484 licenses had been issued in Medina County on all types of vehicles while 7,436 licenses were issued in the same time during 1956.

The above figures are from the official reports of the Tax Office.

Natalia Man Dies While Behind Wheel

Legon Battle, retired civil engineer, died suddenly Tuesday afternoon about 1 while driving his car on highway 81 north of Natalia, near Humble Pump Station.

He and Mrs. Battle had been to San Antonio, and were returning home, his wife said. He looked around at her, then suddenly took his hands off the steering wheel and fell over against her shoulder. She grabbed the wheel and steered the pickup truck they were riding in to a safe stop beside the road.

A local Doctor pronounced him dead and blamed a heart attack as the cause of death. Funeral services are pending arrival of his children.

Natalia School Sets Services

The service will be held in the Community Presbyterian Church with Rev. Laddie Jaseck, Catholic Priest, delivering the main address. Other churches in town will cooperate by dismissing their evening services and attending the Baccalaureate services.

Conservation News

Rainfall In Ground

In the past few weeks it has rained from 8 - 15 inches over the Medina Valley Soil Conservation District. Everyone seems to be happy with the rains, especially after the long drought. The water that has gone in the ground is a measure of the benefit of all rains.

You have probably heard, in the past week, that we need more dams to store water that has gone rushing downstream. If all runoff water had been stored in dams, what use could be made of it except for recreation. This runoff should be stored in the soil where it falls, to produce grass and good crops.

Some checks have been made to see just how deep moisture has penetrated. On rangeland that has no grass cover, the penetration was only eight inches. On cultivated fields that had no past conservation program applied on them, penetration was from 21 to 37 inches.

On cropland that had been planted to hubam clover in 1954-55, penetration was over four feet. On rangeland that had been rootplowed and seeded, penetration was also over four feet.

It takes approximately 2 1/2 inches of water to wet one foot of soil. So you can see the person with pastures that had only eight inches of penetration lost enough water to make a crop of grass, because from one to two inches of rain is all that went into the soil...the rest went down gullies. Your conservation service urges each farmer and rancher to make a test and see how deep moisture went into the soil.

Don Holden, who ranches 22 miles northeast of Hondo on the old Bandera Road, was in town last week and reports that his ranch had very little runoff. A new stock pond was built in 1956 on 600 acres of drainage area. From eight to ten inches of rain had fallen, with four inches falling in a two hour period, and the pond caught only 3 feet of water. The grass held the water and stored it in the soil. Range in this condition prevents floods, production, which in turn prevents into the soil...the rest went

Time For Lawmakers To Act On Pending Bills

By FREDERICK HODGSON

SAN DIEGO, Tex. — I'm not sure whose move it is in Duval County, but I get the feeling it's time for somebody to play his hole card.

I have just returned to deep south Texas after several months in New York and Hollywood. In New York negotiating with Random House about a book on Duval County. And in Hollywood writing a motion picture with my collaborator, Franz Rosenwald, on the same fascinating subject.

Now that I'm back, I'm wondering about three things. First, what the Texas Legislature will do with the opportunity it has to plug up the loopholes in the law that made this political jungle possible — this place where the strong have lived off the weak and shouted their defiance to the world. I'll come back to this.

Second, I'm wondering about the man Parr himself and a couple of his old friends, one of whom says he is Parr's enemy while the other says he hardly knows the man at all.

Parr is different nowadays. "Plumb crazy," according to several people in this sun-baked county that slithers in oil. A few months ago Parr paid a big fine for waving a carbine and threatening to kill Thomas Molina in the dim halls of the Duval court house. He was put under a $7,500 peace bond.

But a few weeks ago he again pulled a pistol out of the glove compartment of his car and stuck it under the nose of Eloy Ramirez. Another conviction for gunthrowing could cost him that $7,500. The only reason anybody can figure out for his brashness is that Eloy refused to shake hands with him in Angelina's cafe.

The Duke has always been a gun-waver, but now they say he waves it with a more deadly vehemence.

Parr doesn't look good, either. He has gone bankrupt, and he is intermittently on trial in Houston on a charge of using the mails to defraud. The trial has started three times. The first ended with one man hanging the jury, and since then two juries have been spoiled by the discovery of an unqualified juror in the bunch.

Parr hates a lot of men, and his hatred seems to obsess him. It centers on District Attorney Sam Burris, now that John Ben Shepperd has left the Attorney General's Office and gone into business in West Texas.

Burris is the symbol of all Parr's troubles. He is the bulldog of the law that won't let go, even though the Duke has lost his fortune, his political power, his prestige, everything. Burr still gets help from the state, but it was John Ben Shepperd who started tearing down the Duke's feudal empire, and it was Burris who helped him. Duval residents say the Duke can't talk about anything but Sam Burris.

The Peripatetic Pals
But about those friends of Parr's. This is what really prompted me to add this article to the series of 11 which Franz Rosenwald and I wrote recently. They were distributed by the Texas Press Association, and published by some 250 dailies and weeklies in Texas with a readership covering more than half the state. Since so many people are listening, I want to add a little to what I said.

Recently Dan Tobin, an able and personable young man who was once a Parr stalwart but who turned against the big boss, has been running around the state palsy-walsy with a long-time Parr crony named Thomas Y. Pickett. The junkies, to Dallas and other places, were to raise money from the oil companies to get Duval County out of its current financial jam. Judge Tobin, by the way, is under indictment because of his past association with the Parr machine.

Pickett is a political fixer of no little renown in Texas, a sporting man who, like Parr, loves fast horses. Also like Parr, he once did time for forgetting to pay his income tax.

Pickett is head of Thomas Y. Pickett and Co. of Dallas. His firm holds the tax evaluation contracts for Duval County and for the county's school districts. For tax purposes Duval property is valued at just over $41 million, of which some $36 million represents the valuation of oil and industrial properties, including utilities and railroads.

It's the tax evaluator's job, in this case Pickett, to set the value of county property, and report to the commissioners (including Judge Tobin) who, in turn, set the tax rate. Pickett has held the Duval contract steadily since 1934.

This writer talked to Mr. Pickett in his office in Dallas and later at the Commodore Perry Hotel in Austin. I promised to print a statement from him exactly as he gave it to me. Here it is, precisely as typed by his secretary:

"During the period of 1926-27, and from 1934 to 1950, inclusive,

Thomas Y. Pickett and Company were paid total fees from Duval County in the amount of $247,330.66, and not $900,000 as reported in Collier's magazine, which is now out of business. Since 1950 we have had a contract with Duval County and they have paid us $15,000.00 per year.

Note, please, that Mr. Pickett brings up the matter of Collier's magazine. I didn't bring it up. Note, too, that Mr. Pickett makes no mention of his contracts with the Duval school districts, including the notorious Benavides School District from which Parr and his pals are accused of plucking much of their plunder.

Back in June of 1951 Collier's ran an article entitled "Something Is Rotten in the State of Texas" and the writer, Gordon Schendel, brought Pickett into the picture as being buddy buddy with the Duke.

Time magazine in its issue of February 15, 1954, also suggested a close alliance between Parr and Pickett and the story caused quite a sensation in oil circles. "Why, I hardly know the man," Pickett told me. "Oh, I guess I've seen him a couple of times when I've been down in Duval on business."

Mr. Pickett went on to make this interesting observation: "I was the most surprised man in Texas when I read in the papers what had been going on down there."

Olay, let's look at the record. It's a lulu.

At Pickett's federal trial for income tax evasion it came out that he had taken $150,000 from W. L. Pearson and Co. of Houston to swing a road bond vote in Hutchinson County.

At Parr's federal trial for income tax evasion it came out that he had taken a $25,000 kick-back from the same W. L. Pearson and Co. on a Duval County road contract. Parr was then County Judge.

The two men, Parr and Pickett, are as alike in some departments as two peas in a pod.

In the multitudinous court actions in the sticky Duval situation much has been made of bank checks, many of them made out to persons both existent and nonexistent.

In the Pickett trial the evidence showed that he had no less than sixty federal experts, than six hidden bank accounts, admitted to by Pickett on the stand, showed that he used the system now attributed famously to Parr. Checks were endorsed in Pickett's own handwriting with such names as J. S. Carnes, C.O. Carnes, J.C. Jones, Jack Jones and Jack Johnson.

I have a stack of checks beside me as I write. All of them are drawn on the Duval County general fund, all made out in Parr's own handwriting, and all made out either to Thomas Y. Pickett and Co. or to Thomas Y. Pickett personally.

Most of the checks are in the amount of $1,000 and the endorsements on these are correct, each check stamped on the back. Most of the checks are in the amount of $1,000 and the endorsements on these are correct, each check stamped on the back.

Two of the checks, however, stand real scrutiny. They're not piddling little $1,000 items. They are for big money. And they don't bear the Pickett company rubber stamp, indicating that they didn't go through the company account.

One of these checks, dated simply une, 1951, and not signed by the County Judge as required by Texas law, is for $5,500. This check is number 544.

The other check, number 17, is dated July, 1952. It is for a whopping $6,500. And this one wasn't signed by the County Judge as required by law.

The harder up the county gets financially, the more they dig around in the old records. And the more they dig around in the old records, the more odd-looking checks they turn up with funny endorsements.

As I said, Dan Tobin and Thomas Y. Pickett have been running around the state trying to tap the oil companies for a little financial assistance to the county. Tobin split with the Duke some time back, and Pickett says he hardly knows the man. Maybe they're both smart. A lot of the Duke's old friends have found themselves in trouble.

Which brings me to the third thing I've been wondering about. What is the Texas Legislature going to do about plugging the gaps in the law which John Ben Shepperd said make situations like Duval County possible?

I've read several articles in national magazines about the corruption in Texas on the state level. I've been in and out of Texas, studying Texas laws and lawbreakers and writing a book and a movie script, for about 10 months now. In my humble opinion the corruption in Texas starts right down at the grass roots, in the counties and the little towns. And it starts with the outmoded Texas Constitution and the lack of adequate statutes to enable people at the county level to keep things clean. Your primary trouble, Texan, is not in Austin.

Twice in as many legislative sessions, the Texas Press Association has laid a stack of proposed bills in front of the lawmakers incorporating a number inspired by Shepperd's findings in Duval County along with others that Shepperd and the TPA have urged "for good government in Texas." These others deal mostly with keeping government meetings open to the public eye, keeping public records public, and requiring the publication of information the people have a right to know.

As John Ben Shepperd put it, "Take any four or five of these proposed new laws and enforce them, and you just can't have a Duval County." There are 15 of them altogether.

I came back to Texas to do some final checking on a few things, including these bills. I have to admit that even with my natural newsman's cynicism, I was a little staggered to find that the Texas Legislature had been in session three months in 1957 and was active six months in 1955 — and in all that time only a couple of the bills have struggled through to the Governor's desk for signing into law.

Some of the most important of them are staggering through the legislative halls, not expected to live. Others have had their death blow unless interested citizens raise a protest.

Among the staggering is SB 223, which would make it possible for men who steal public funds to be indicted and prosecuted outside the county of the offense. Such a law would prevent embezzlers from getting off scot free by controlling judges, prosecuting attorneys, or grand juries.

Shepperd says this is the most important bill, from the standpoint of criminal law, and he ought to know. To get the Duval County indictments he had to wait for a district judge, a district attorney and a grand jury to be thrown out. SB 223 is in a Senate subcommittee, and its survival looks doubtful.

Another bill buried in a Senate subcommittee where the death rate is high is SB 88. It would forbid holding government meetings in secret, except as provided by law.

SB 31, you might say, has been sent to Death Row. It was referred to the Attorney General for re-drafting, with the intention of killing it. Its purpose is to remove from office any public official who stands on the Fifth Amendment to avoid showing his public records or answering questions about his official actions.

A bill requiring county attorneys to sue for the recovery of unlawfully expended money, with or without the consent of the commissioners court, is also in a Senate subcommittee but has a little better chance of survival. It is SB 224.

A number of others haven't had any torpedoes thrown into them, but the lawmakers' enthusiasm for them is not conspicuous. In fact, the boys are taking their good old easy time, if not actually stalling. Companion bills to those listed above are kicking around in House committees, faring little better than in the Senate, apparently.

I might say right here that the views expressed herein are mine, not necessarily those of the TPA.

Among the 15 "Better Government" bills, I count only two that have passed both houses of the Legislature, and three others that have passed one House only.

Bills which have gone to the Governor for signature open political precinct conventions to representatives of the press, and require a special audit of county records in any county upon a petition of at least 30 per cent of the qualified voters. Both were designed to provide Texans with more adequate knowledge of what goes on in their counties and their state.

Three others have passed either the House or Senate, but not both of the Legislative bodies. Senators okayed SB 131 to require school districts and other political subdivisions to publish annual financial statements; likewise SB 55, a Mandatory Publications Act to assure that public officials will publish the information they are supposed to under present laws. I'm told this one can get through if a few citizens interested in good government will speak up for it to urge its passage through the House.

House members passed HB 199 providing for stopping payments to school districts which, like the notorious Benavides district, fail or to refuse to furnish an audit of accounts.

In fact, just about any of these bills, even the ones that are all but dead and buried in the subcommittees, might pass if a few interested citizens would speak up for them.

So as I head back for Hollywood, I'm going to stick my neck out and offer Texans a little word of advice. I've known Capone and Costello and some of the other big-time boys, and I've been in Europe where I looked on the faces of bigger, better dictators than Boss Parr. But I haven't seen one yet that couldn't have been stopped by a few good laws, properly enforced.

Texans like their "local autonomy," that peculiar Constitutional system by which every Texas county is an island with a fence around it when it comes to enforcing the law and prosecuting criminals. But the bills proposed by the TPA are especially designed to accomplish good law enforcement without disturbing that local autonomy. That's the appraisal of John Ben Shepperd, former Attorney General who busted Duval wide open from the inside, without violating anybody's local self-government.

SPEAKING OF 'PROTECTION'—

-- AS A CHILD LAY WOUNDED!

Labor union violence, coercion and intimidation, offend the sensibilities of all decent people.

A recent victim, lying in an Indiana hospital with a bullet dangerously near her brain, was a baby girl. Her parents, working in a strike-bound plant, did not believe the strike was justified and continued to report for work.

The child was hit when a fusillade of rifle shots struck her parents' trailer-home under cover of night.

It should not take the near-death of a small child to wake up the country. Sufficient public indignation against labor union violence in any form will put an end to it.

As the acid-blinded labor columnist, Victor Reisel, notes: "The right to strike and the right to fight a strike — are no license to kill, or maim, or wound, or blow up property."

Red Cross Help Goes To Many Texas People

April's storms caused tornado or flood damage to 23 counties in Texas. To the 30,000 families affected, Red Cross relief commitments total $500,000.

Six counties were affected by twisters and 17 by swirling flood waters. During April, 60 tornado funnels were sighted and confirmed. Between April 18 and the end of the month, nine major rivers spread out of their banks.

Disasters have been so widely scattered and have struck communities so capriciously that the task of Red Cross in trying to meet the needs of the bewildered and dazed victims, has been staggering. To illustrate: while Red Cross was opening four shelters to house over 250 people in San Antonio on April 28th, skilled Red Cross disaster workers were engaged in rehabilitating 300 victims who were struck down by the April 2 tornado and

PERSONAL APPEARANCE

By Jerry June Berger

Parties honoring Hondo High's graduating Seniors had their beginning last Wednesday night. A gala affair, the supper-dance was given in St. John's Parish Hall by MR. AND MRS. FRANK VANCE and MR. AND MRS. BILL LASITER for their sons, ALBERT VANCE and LOUIE LASITER, members of the Class of '57.

We have been guests at several high school parties in Hondo but we can't recall the students having as much fun as they seemed to have at this one. Following their supper, the Seniors and their guests followed the usual procedure of sitting around the sidelines letting good danceable music go to waste, but this didn't last long. ALBERT had his mother start some rounds of Paul Jones and that broke the ice. From then on until nearly midnight the kids really lived it up — stomping and dancing to hi-fi recordings.

One of the nicest gestures of the evening was the presentation of a picture to each couple. MRS. VANCE, an avid Polaroid picture fan, took or had pictures made of each couple and handed it to them one minute later as a souvenir of the affair. This also made for a lot of fun as the guests compared pictures and waited for their own to appear.

High School Principal H. R. BURCH says this class is the second largest in Hondo's history with 47 scheduled to don caps and gowns for Commencement Exercises. One student, MARY MASSENA, finished at midterms and is now with her husband in Germany.

Saturday was their annual picnic day at Garner State Park. Another social event being planned for the group is a party and dance sponsored by the room mothers following graduation exercises. Then just after school is out they'll leave on their trip. Once again this year, the Cavern. PRINCIPAL BURCH Seniors will head for Carlsbad says he believes he could almost drive the trip blindfolded — he has done it so regularly.

While on the subject of high-schoolers, we must mention the band concert. Seems like each year the spring concert gets better, and this year it was played to the largest crowd ever to see and hear it — the downstairs and balcony of the auditorium were filled.

Their musical selections were well chosen and performed, and the stage show numbers were funny, as usual. Genuine talent was shown by the three soloists of the evening too.

RICHARD MORRIS, a Senior who has a ready been awarded a music scholarship to Sul Ross College for next year, played "Big Joe The Tuba", bass solo, and RICHARD CORDER, whose talent has won him a spot on the State High School Band, played a complicated saxophone solo without using the sheet music.

A Junior this year, he'll have another fling at band next year. The youngest of the soloists was RAMIRO YBARRA who is only a freshman, but this boy held the first clarinet chair in the Owl Band even last year. With three more years ahead of him, RAMIRO will probably be able to just name the college or university he wants to attend — County.

they'll be seeking him. If he continues to progress as he has in the past two short years, this youngster may be in a class with ARTIE SHAW as a clarinetist. (Being only 15, RAMIRO may not be familiar with SHAW, but we always considered him out front of BENNY GOODMAN when the two were compared.)

So our hat is off this week to BOB LEWIS and his showmanship. We think that any band director who teaches beginners and has to listen to all those sour notes coming out of about 40 instruments deserves an ear-muffed shaped medal just for listening. From our own experience, we find it challenging to listen to one young piano student when he hits a wrong note, and his playing is in a separate room! But DIRECTOR LEWIS has also shown his ability to spot talent and push it while developing a harmonious organization.

The band will climax its eventful 1956-57 year by holding their annual banquet Saturday night. The Castroville High School Juniors entertained the Seniors at their annual prom Saturday night and they had the Legion Hall so well camouflaged that it was difficult to recognize. It surely took several days getting up all their decorations, and they were beautifully done.

Using an oriental theme, they selected black and red as their colors. Not an inch of wall space in the hall was left bare of appropriate decorations or intricate lettering. The class sponsor, MRS. HERMINA SITTE said that some ex-students had felt sorry for the Juniors and had lent a helping hand in decorating.

During an intermission of their dance, five little first graders from Hondo performed a ballroom number. Dressed in red and complete with slanting-eyes oriental make-up, the five were M. A. R. Y. ZUBERUELER, PATTY ROCK, MARY GILBERT, JENNY FINGER and SHARON NESTER. In the middle of their dance, they were supposed to slide to the side, but since they had not practiced in that building before, their directions got a bit turned around and two slid to the right, two to the left. SHARON, who was middle-man, stared at the two going right, then turned and glared at the two headed left and in one quick moment of indecision hastily put her hands on her hips, stomped her foot, shook her head and uttered one loud gasp. Coming off stage, she was a little perturbed over their performance, but actually it couldn't have been cuter even though it wasn't scheduled that way. The best laid plans of mice and men — and dancers — sometimes go astray and especially in a first time performance as this was for her.

PAULA STANGA and EDDIE BERGER gave two tap dance routines that night also.

These youngsters and many others will be performing in Hondo at a dance recital scheduled for the night of May 22 in the high school auditorium. Their teacher is MRS. FRANK O'NEILL of Pearsall, who is using a round-the-world and western theme this year. A nominal charge will be made, all of which will go to benefit the Hondo Camp Fire girls who are working to complete their Camp Mary Louise in northern Medina County.

The Press Battles for its Freedom

JOHN PETER ZENGER was arrested "for printing and publishing several seditious libels dispersed throughout his journals or newspapers."

Zenger was a New York printer in the days when Governor Cosby ruled the colony. Governor Cosby ruled in such an autocratic, overbearing manner that several indignant citizens started a newspaper to arouse the public against his tyranny. Zenger undertook to publish the newspaper.

Zenger was thrown into prison, and his bail was fixed at 800 pounds, a large sum for those days and quite beyond his ability to furnish. He stayed in jail for months, and his situation appeared hopeless.

The case finally was called to the attention of Andrew Hamilton, a distinguished Pennsylvania lawyer, who took up Zenger's cause as a public service. Hamilton forced the case to trial, and his speech to the jury, which led to Zenger's acquittal, is a ringing statement of what the press in America must still vigilantly fight for.

All men have the right, Hamilton maintained, "publicly to reiterate the abuses of power, and to assert with courage the sense they have of the blessing of liberty — and their resolution at all hazards to preserve it."

Today, in our country encroachments by governments and private interests alike upon freedom of the press are counter to law. Nevertheless, even today the press must battle constantly to keep that freedom intact.

MAJOR TORNADOES OF 1956, as compiled from preliminary Weather Bureau data, clearly point to Spring as a time for special watchfulness by residents of the central United States—the world's most dangerous tornado area. Civil defense units are on special call throughout this vast region for possible rescue work. In addition, if a tornado-hit locality is declared a major disaster area by the President, as happened in Numbers 1, 3, 6, and 10 above, the Federal Civil Defense Administration can provide funds to aid communities in temporary repair of public facilities. Some Mistakes to Avoid in Watering the Garden Plants which have everything else required for vigorous growth, will die for lack of water. And in the water which is carried by the hose, it has become possible to mix with a minimum of trouble, plant food, and pesticides for easy application to the garden.

One inch of rain is needed on average every week. You can test it by setting out a coffee can, and measuring the water that falls into it. If an inch of rain falls to come, make up the difference with the hose. But do not apply it in small doses; put the whole week's ration on at once.

If you use a sprinkler, calculate as nearly as practical the area it covers; and let the hose run in a 10 quart pail, to learn how long it takes to fill the pail. One inch of water on a square yard takes just over 5 gallons of water. Apply this to area your sprinkler covers and you can tell approximately how long to let it stand in one position to give the soil the soaking required.

The best sprinkler throws a fine spray in a quantity which the soil can absorb without run-off. Never try to water lawn or garden with a nozzle held in the hand, for you will never get enough on. The success of artificial watering is entirely dependent on the quantity applied; it does not depend on the temperature of the water. Cold water is just as good as warm; it will all be the same by the time it reaches the plant roots.

The idea that gardens should not be watered in the sunshine is obsolete. That is really the best time to water, if a sprinkler is used; because the leaves dry quickly, and do not go into the night wet. Dampness and darkness encourage the spread of fungus disease, and leaves should never be wet so late in the day that they cannot dry before nightfall. This is especially important in the vegetable garden, and with the edible leaves, such as lettuce, chard, and cabbages.

While plant leaves enjoy an occasional shower, that washes off accumulated dust, neither leaves or flowers are benefitted by prolonged sprinkling; so it is better to let most of the water you apply run directly on the ground. This can be done by using a canvas hose, which leaks along its length through every pore, and thus plays the part of an irrigation ditch. The water may also be allowed to run from the hose on a piece of board which will prevent washing the soil.

With the discovery that plant leaves absorb plant food which is sprayed on them, even more quickly than the roots, impetus has been given to the practice of applying plant food through the hose water. This practice is not new, and safe methods have been worked out for it. A siphon can be fastened between two sections of hose. If plant food is dissolved in a bucket or tub, and the small rubber tube leading from the siphon dropped into it, the fertilizer solution will be lifted up and mixed with the hose water.

If dry plant food is used, mix it in the tub with one pound to 2 gallons of water. If soluble plant foods are used, prepare a solution which the direction says is safe for applying to plants in the garden. When these solutions are further diluted by the hose water there will be no danger of burning the plant leaves. Most gardens will benefit from a food application once a month during the summer.

What To Do In a Tornado

● People in open country can view the approach of a tornado and move at right angles to its path. If there is no time to escape, lie flat in the nearest depression, such as a ditch or ravine.

● In towns or cities, seek shelter inside, preferably in a substantial building. Stay away from windows.

● The southwest corner of the basement of a frame house is safer than in a brick or stone house. If there is no basement, lie down on the first floor under a table or bed (preferably in the southwest corner).

● Urban schools: Stay inside, away from windows; remain near an inside wall or a lower floor. Avoid auditoriums and gymnasiums.

● Rural schools of frame construction: Teachers should remove children to a ravine or ditch if storm shelter is not available.

ABOUT YOUR HEALTH

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health,
HENRY A. HOLLE, M.D., Commissioner

AUSTIN — The Big Three in America today are reserpine, chlorpromazine, and meprobamate. They are tranquilizing drugs — so-called "happy pills." And as more and more people take them for real and imagined tensions, they are fast becoming household words.

Americans last year spent well over $150 million for various types. A single drug company reported the sale of 30 billion tablets during the first 10 months of 1956, and indicated that sales were expected to double in 1957.

Scientific studies indicate that the drugs have great value in the treatment of some types of mental illness, but when healthy people, for no other reason than that they had a bad day at the office or that children have been unusually noisy, begin eating them like popcorn, an insidious danger is in the making.

Like other valuable drugs, tranquilizers can be harmful physically and mentally. Medical researchers have reported that in some cases there is a tendency toward habit formation. In a few cases unpleasant side reactions have occurred. Some users have been depressed rather than calmed. Calm users have become excited. Some reactions have been severe enough to require hospitalization and extensive treatment. And only time can tell whether prolonged use will permanently damage the nervous system.

Last September, some 700 of the nation's foremost authorities on mental illness met to discuss tranquilizers and some of the problems their wide usage had raised. The conference concluded that the drugs do evidently relieve tensions in mentally disturbed persons, but for every research team reporting positive results, another reported failure in trying to duplicate those results.

Certain tranquilizers influence the release of a body chemical called serotonin — a hormone found most heavily concentrated in the brain. What the chemical does is not yet fully understood, but present belief is that it acts as a switch to turn moods on and off by sending impulses of good or bad feeling along the pathways of the central nervous system. Enough serotonin in the brain might actually be a factor in sanity. When the role of this hormone is fully known we may have the final answer as to how certain tranquilizers produce their effects.

More than a dozen tranquilizers are already on the market. Some are used very beneficially in hospitals; others by private physicians in their practice. All are potentially powerful medical tools. But it will take time — perhaps years — to test them thoroughly.

Until that day comes, all of us would do well to remember that a certain amount of tension and anxiety is a part of normal life. Peace of mind and zestful living do not yet come in pills. It comes from facing our problems and working to solve them. In any event the so-called tranquilizers should only be taken under the direction of a physician.

Texas Fights Cancer

(Editor's Note: This is the fourth in a series of articles to appear in the Herald on Cancer.)

Age is a factor — a very slippery factor — in cancer.

As a general rule, the older one is the greater the risk of cancer. To this, however, there are many exceptions. Of all diseases, cancer is the Number One Killer of American children.

Some mice painted with a coal tar substance soon after birth will develop leukemia within a few months.

Texas scientists have shown that an important part of the age factor, so far as leukemia is concerned, is hormones. If they give very young animals male sex hormones, they protect them against the virus. If they shut off their hormone supply by castration they rob them of the resistance to leukemia. Removing the thyroid gland also blocks this leukemia.

The scientists have shown that X-rays and a coal tar product given together are many times as potent in inducing leukemia as either agent alone.

Help Texas scientists fight cancer. Address your contribution today to cancer, in care of your postmaster.

Texas Seed Laws Taken To Task Because Of Soil Bank Oversight

Texas seed laws are being taken to task because of an oversight in one of the country's most important agricultural programs — the Soil Bank Conservation Acreage Plan. Because Federal conservation measures fail to stipulate that seed bought for use on reserved acreage be tested and tagged to qualify for federal payment, some persons are disregarding state laws which establish standards of purity and quality for commercial seed. For example, the Federal Government has agreed to pay 80 per cent of the purchase price for grain sorghum seed used on retired acreage, whether the seed be cleaned, tested, tagged, treated, or not.

HAB's only loss was a heart-breaking 5-4 decision to Lackland Friday night, in which the local base's defense fell apart, committing nine errors and allowing Lackland all five unearned runs.

So far this season, righthander Jack Roberts has been the pitching sensation for HAB, hurling 22 innings and giving up only one earned run, a creditable 0.40 e.r.a.

Roberts is owned by the St. Louis Cardinals and last year played triple-A ball with Rochester. He has 36 strikeouts in three games.

Offensively this season, Hondo has been paced by a lefthanded slugger, owned by Baltimore, Bob Musgrave. The former San Antonio Mission outfielder is hitting a blistering .461 with six

Comets Win One, Lose One

Avenging their only loss in Academic League play, the St. Louis Comets defeated the Panthers of TMI 7 to 2 last week. Francis Lutz started for the Comets but yielded to Royce Groff in the fourth. Royce pitched hitless and scoreless ball and received credit for the win. Kirby, who looked good until he tired in the late innings, was the losing pitcher.
The Comets scored two quick runs in the first frame, but TMI came back to score one in the bottom of the first and tied it up in the third. St. Louis edged ahead in the fourth and fifth innings and sewed up the game with a three-run flurry in the seventh. Gerry Holzhaus, Groff and Rodney Tschirhart all got two for four.
OWLS EDGE OUT COMETS
The Hondo Owls came from behind to score five runs in the sixth and snatch a 9-8 victory over the St. Louis Comets in Castroville last week. Schulte, who was hampered by poor infield support in the early innings, managed to survive and was the winning pitcher.
Meanwhile, Owl batters continued pecking away at starter Justin Jungman until their big sixth inning in which they broke loose for five runs and the victory.

SPEAKING OF SPORTS

By George Stewart
The Owls have had a hard schedule this year and along with it, some hard luck. Billy Neuman, center fielder, hurt his shoulder and is unable to throw the ball very hard, however, he can do good enough to hold down his position.

OWLS TAKE THRASHING

The Owls took a 15 to 2 thrashing from Crystal City recently. Perez pitched the entire game. He gave up 11 hits, but only two of these were able to score. The Owls had seven errors, and the pitching record looked bad. They were unable to control Crystal City as they managed for 13 hits, while scoring 15 runs.

Alvin Hartman started the game, but two innings, eight hits, eight runs, and three bases on balls later, he was replaced by Thomas Schulte. Schulte lasted only two innings in which he gave up two hits, five runs, one base on balls. He hit two batters with wild pitches.

Charles Stiegler then took his turn on the mound, starting in the fifth and finishing the game. Stiegler gave up three hits, two runs, and one base on balls. The Owls won 13 different players.

Billy Potsavich got three hits for four times at bat, Joe Urrutia blasted two for three, Schulte, two for two, and Curtis Wiemers, two for four. The scoring according to innings was as follows:
Hondo 100 000 1-2
Crystal City 323 520 0-15

OWLS RUN OVER CARRIZO

The Carrizo-Hondo game started off like it would be tight, but the Owls broke loose in the second inning to score five runs.

Hartman pitched the entire game, giving up only two hits and one run. He had extra good control, walking only one batter and hitting one man with a wild pitch.

Thomas Schulte had the best game batting average with two hits in two times at the plate. He also walked two times. Wiemers and Henry Balzen each had two for three.

Allen, of Carrizo, pitched all seventeen innings, giving up 15 hits, 12 runs, and 6 bases on balls. Tijerina, the lead-off batter, got one of two hits received by Carrizo. His hit came in the first inning for a single. Rubalcaba received the other hit early in the third inning for another single. Allen was the only batter Hartman walked. He later scored on an error for the only Carrizo score, crossing the plate in the sixth inning.

After a good game, Hartman was given another win to add to his list. Allen was given the loss. The score by innings was:
Hondo 051 211 12 12
Carrizo Springs 000 001 0 1
The final score was Hondo 12 and Carrizo 1.
OWLS CAPSIZE ST. LOUIS

The Owls capsized St. Louis by a score of 9 to 8 last week. They scored two runs in the first half of the first inning, but St. Louis came back in the last half of the first with three runs to take the lead.

Castroville maintained and kept adding to her lead throughout the fifth inning. With the score 7 to 4 as the sixth inning came up, the Owls found new spirit when Billy Potsavich doubled to left-center scoring two runs. The rally was not stopped until Hondo scored five runs. This made the score 9 to 7.

In the last of the seventh, St. Louis scored once more, but needed one marker to tie up the game. The Owls took the game 9 to 8.

Thomas Schulte did most of the pitching, giving up seven hits, seven runs, and four bases on balls. He hit one batter with a wild pitch. Alvin Hartman pitched the last inning giving up no hits, one run, and one base on balls. Potsavich got two hits for three times at bat and Billy Neuman got two for four. The score by innings was as follows:
Hondo 200 115 X 9
